

STUGGA

Using Monday

Best use of the Monday online app for integration into Stuga workflows

Monday is a task management system that can be configured for anything. It can be used for to-do lists and project planning needs to hold a To-Do list of tasks. It allows a history of actions for tasks, along with an upload area for any type of file, photo strength is in team communication, as everyone has access to all the information

Adding a new machine on Monday

Correct procedure to add a new machine on Monday and creating the associated Contract for the warranty

Accessing Machine Location from a job

How to find a machine / customer location from an assigned job

Monday - Searching for Jobs at a Customer on Mobile App

How to look ahead or search for outstanding jobs at a particular customer or build number